Martin County, FL – The Florida Department of Health in Martin County is welcoming residents to a Family Fun Day, Saturday, April 8 in Indiantown. The event will feature free giveaways, healthy cooking demonstrations and resources for community programs and services.

In addition, staff from the Health Department will provide free pregnancy testing, HIV/STD testing, mercury testing and childhood vaccinations.

"We are excited to offer this event to the community during National Public Health week.", said Health Officer, Karlette Peck. "One of the essential services of public health is to inform, educate and empower people about health issues, so bringing together our staff and partners to engage with the community benefits everyone."
